ON WINGS of the Dawn — Resurrection in Light
God's Glory and Splendor consuming earth's night,

Enfolds all the world in Its Great Cosmic Love,
On this Easter Morning from Jesus above!
Behold in the Light! His Great Conquering Power,
Illumining all with His Mastery each hour!
His Victory of Light from the Great Central Sun,
Is now God's Full Freedom released to each one
Who, facing the Light — "The Almighty I AM,"
Surrenders completely! Lets It take command!
In Loving compassion, the Great Violet Flame,
Released in Its Fulness by Blest Saint Germain,
Spreads over — around us — Its Mantle so bright,
Consuming forever all less than God's Light!
In Beauty transcendent the earth is reborn—
Redeemed by Light's Power on this Cosmic Morn!
With Arms reaching toward us, Our Messenger stands,
Now drawing us upward — now holding our hands!
Our heart's Light is bursting in Love now in Him!
God's Flame now enfolds us — The Great Elohim!
