

EXCERPTS FROM BELOVED SAINT GERMAIN'S DISCOURSE

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

OCTOBER 28, 1945

wish to explain today an Inner Action of the Law through which I trust there will come such Illumination to each of you that it will impress upon your intellectual consciousness the necessity of holding the feelings absolutely without resistance — I mean a fighting resistance against someone else who is trying to hold to the Victory of the Light. You see from Our Standpoint the feeling of battle or discord of any kind is impurity. It is just as much an impurity from Our Standpoint as a heavy cloud of soot would be if it swept into your room here and upon your bodies.

Children disagree and quarrel with each other and refuse to co-operate, but not so with the intelligent person who has grown to a certain Conscious Knowledge of the Law; because the person who really understands what Our Understanding is from the Inner Level will learn to control his or her feelings, keep them harmonious without interruption and be able to mix with kings or chimney sweeps, and everybody in between, with the ability to harmonize and pour forth Love that lifts each Life Stream and Its Activities into Conscious Harmonious Co-operation with all the rest of Life.

If one understood completely how necessary that is and would govern the feelings accordingly, there would not be one imperfection in the physical form — not one; because of your willingness to just happily co-operate with whatever other part of Life the Great Cosmic Law drew into association with you, you would build so much of that Harmony into the cellular structure of your own bodies that no imperfection could remain.

I have said in the Discourses and various Others have done the same thing, that people are very often brought into association with each other to compel one or the other, or both, to face themselves and find out what it is that needs correcting. Then set about to do it with a firm determination to co-operate with the Light in every Life Stream to the point where the very intensity of your love poured out and the harmonizing radiation which you pour forth automatically draw forth from every other Life Stream you meet the Harmonious Co-operation of the Higher Mental Body. But if one does not send out That Feeling of Loving Co-operation, then the Higher Mental Body of an individual, where perhaps the personal self is not too harmonious, the Higher Mental Body is not allowed to come through and give you assistance.

Now, We are trying to bring you all to the point where you will not be concerned with each other's personalities over any discord, but at all times your harmonious association with each other is a great Raising and Lifting Joy which enables the Divine Plan to be fulfilled for all. If you could, each day, make your decision that you are going to rejoice in the co-operation you can give to the Higher Mental Body of every one you contact, then your Happiness will be very great and your health will be Indestructible. You will, through that Continued Sustained Harmony and the Expansion of your own Love, become a Magnet for everything that is of the Light; and This is the Point I wish to get over to you this morning, because it is so vitally necessary in business.

The person who can put aside his own personal desires and pour forth the Kindness and the Loving Co-operation that will enable a Blessing to come to many, is surely serving the Light, and at the same time establishing a discipline within his or her own feeling world.

Now there is only one thing that ever makes imperfection, lack or limitation and that is the feeling of battle against some other part of God. There is a vast difference between feeling your Mastery of the Sacred Fire clothing you and blazing from within you and then entering into a condition that needs correction and going in there with that firm great Masterful Silence and Power of Peace; and the Commanding Presence of the Sacred Fire and Light and Love, using the Authority of the Higher Mental Body to govern destructive conditions and that feeling of going in and battling what is there. Mastery never fights! Mastery never dominates! Each of you is coming to the point where We want you to have the Joy, the Freedom, the Relaxation and the Supply of Mastery.

The feeling of fight is human and was never anything else. God never fights part of Himself or Herself! God, the Infinite Creator of the Limitless Universe around you, never fights! The Universe has been loved forth into outer manifestation! The Universe around you is sustained by the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love from the Central Sun! This System of Worlds is sustained by the Cosmic Love from the Physical Sun to the Planets of this System! The Life of mankind's bodies is sustained upon the Planet by the Love from the "Presence" through the Higher Mental Body.

Therefore, a business cannot be sustained in the future cycle unless that business is brought forth in Love, sustained by Love, protected by Love, expanded by Love and sent forth to serve Life. That is the Law. Therefore, "I AM" giving you the Secret this morning of the Supreme Mastery of Creation; and if you will draw It into outer action in business channels, the Desire of this Messenger to make MY "I AM" Activities, especially that of the Saint Germain Press and Foundation, the Greatest Activity in the future will be realized in outer manifestation. The Saint Germain Press and Foundation will be the living example and Divine Model upon which the business of the future will be brought forth to serve all Life everywhere, until such time as mankind draw forth their own Mastery from their own Life Streams to the point where they will use the Precipitating Powers of Life and there will be no longer the need of the outer commercial activities.

The Cosmic Law is making a Tremendous Effort to bring about such an Intense Expansion of the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ at this time that every one who has Conscious Knowledge of the "I AM" can, as it were, be lifted on the Arms of Love and carried on the Crest of the Wave into the Mightiest Victorious Accomplishment that has ever been known on the Earth, if they will not battle each other.

It seems so difficult for unascended mankind to realize the importance of holding a feeling of willing co-operation within, and just a glad giving into conditions that will make harmony and happiness for someone else. You know children have their own way, but not so with individuals who have Conscious Knowledge of the "I AM." Do you not see, once the Cosmic Law has brought to your Conscious Attention the Way and Means of operating a Law by which Perfection can come forth, well then, if you do not operate it you are going to be in misery? The human does not let go easily.

The human has been humored through the centuries and it has so insistently and so persistently demanded your attention and, therefore, stolen your Life in order to have the energy by which to survive, that it will not let you have your Freedom, unless you take a positive stand of Mastery, and Mastery is not fighting!

I want this made so clear that the moment there is the slightest fighting feeling within you, you will take it as the most severe warning; because I tell you today, as I said last Sunday in Ouray, when those Three Waves of Cosmic Light-Substance and the Activity of the Sacred Fire go into Concerted Action during the Seven Sacred Weeks, the individuals under This Radiation, whether they know it or not, who allow irritation or battle against each other to come forth in the feelings will have something to handle in their bodies that they won't be able to handle.

Now I have set up this warning and I must say it here and "I AM" going to say it in Chicago, because the Cosmic Law that is testing Life Streams under This Radiation for certain work that is to come in the not far distant future, must know what is in each Life Stream; and if individuals, put through a series of circumstances, cannot or do not govern the feeling of irritation and battle and demand to have their own way, when the harmony of the whole is what is required to succeed – well if those individuals have not the strength then We must know it, and We will not depend on them in the future.

We cannot take people beyond the place where they are well prepared. It would not be wisdom. It would not be kindness; it would not be obedience to the Law. You have had your own way. You have tried out everything that has been on this Planet almost, and in all your investigating somebody Greater than yourselves has had to stand and pour the Love that guarded you until you could come to the Conscious Use and Understanding of the “I AM” in this present Cycle wherein the Violet Consuming Flame could be given for your Complete Eternal Release!

Now then, when you have come to this point and the fate of your Nation stands on the other side of the scale of balance, We are asking every one under the Radiation, both for your own comfort, for your Nation’s Victory and the Ascension; for the protection of your Nation and for the Illumination and Freedom of all mankind, to examine himself and place the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ where battle and irritation and determination to have your own way have been in the past; and if you are strong enough to go through, holding uninterrupted Harmony, you will have Glorious Miracles and Powers and Manifestations for which you have called and plead with life to give to you for centuries.

There has never, up to this time, been a Greater Outpouring come to the Earth than is coming over the Seven Sacred Weeks. Beloved Jesus, whose Love is so great to mankind, is pouring His Intense Love to all the students as well as mankind. The Cosmic Law is releasing a World-Wave of Cosmic Light-Substance which is the Love from the Ascended Masters' Octave. From every one of the Retreats of the Ascended Masters throughout the World, there will be poured forth into the Americas the Mighty Outpouring of the Light Rays and the Cosmic Love that is necessary to hold the balance on this Planet, for it is taking its initiation in Love.

During that time, those who have Conscious Knowledge of this "Mighty I AM Presence" are the most fortunate people on the face of the Earth today, barring none. Now then, if you can reach up, forget every demand of the personal self and draw into yourselves these Three-fold Waves of Cosmic Light from these Great Channels of Assistance, you will move forward prepared to wield the Powers that give your fellow man unlimited assistance; and in assisting others, automatically will your own world be brought into Greater Perfection.

May I say, there is no great and no small in this Activity. Everybody does anything and everything that might be needed on the moment to hold the protection and bring the Perfection of what the work is at hand without any consideration of who they have been, what they have done, how much they have, what position they have been in or anything of the kind. We are not concerned. Those are human things. We are concerned with the ability each one has to expand the Cosmic Love of that Life Stream to give Us the Assistance to protect, to hold and to guard the Divine Rights of free men for the mass of the people in the Nation. The responsibility of guarding the Rights of free men in this Nation rests in the hands of the "I AM" Students; because the people of the outer world do not have conscious knowledge enough, no matter how much they love America. No matter how much they want to do Right, they do not have conscious understanding of This Law enough to hold their own protection, if you do not assist them.

Therefore, to Me there is nothing important except the amount of Love each one pours forth day after day into conditions that heretofore you have battled or rebelled against and in that battle and rebellion gave your Life to the sinister force to sustain your limitations longer. There is not anything on earth that ever created a limitation or sustained a limitation, except the feeling of battle. Individuals think that the things other people do make them discontented or make them battle. That is not true. IT IS NOT WHAT SOMEONE ELSE DOES, IT IS WHAT YOU THINK AND WHAT YOU FEEL ABOUT WHAT THE OTHER PERSON DOES THAT MAKES THE LIMITATIONS IN YOUR WORLD.

“I AM” determined that those who have stood by the Light shall now have everything I can give and do for them as their protection to enable them to go through this period in the greatest Joy and uplifting Accomplishment and to bring the Victory of the Light everywhere and never again know a moment’s struggle. From this moment henceforth, if you want to, you can make every moment of your waking consciousness such an ecstatic enjoyment of the Outpouring of the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ that you are scarcely aware of anything else human around you. You may move in it and not even know it is there, because you will be sealed harmoniously, as it were, like a diver is in his diver’s suit, and feel no qualities of the limitations in which you move, unless they be of the Perfection and the Love of the Light of the Cosmic Christ.

LET NO IRRITATION COME UP WITHIN YOU. IF OTHERS ASK YOU TO DO SOMETHING JUST GIVE YOUR WILLING CO-OPERATION AND HAVE A GOOD TIME DOING IT. ALL LOVE EACH OTHER SO WHAT ONE WANTS TO DO, ALL JOIN IN AND IF IT IS NOT RIGHT, CALL FOR THE DIVINE PLAN TO BE FULFILLED AND GO AHEAD AND GIVE THE CO-OPERATION AND LET ME HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOU ALL I WANT TO GIVE YOU OF MY LOVE; BECAUSE I CAN RELEASE MANIFESTATIONS, MIRACLES AND JOY WHICH WILL DELIGHT YOU FOR ETERNITY. I can turn the key in each one of your Life Streams and open the way and means by which you may use the Greater Powers of your Beings to the enjoyment of all Life you ever contact for the rest of Eternity; but I can only do it on the keynote of Love. That is adamant forever.

Now I ask your co-operation, Oh, not for Me, but I ask your co-operation that together we may care for the rest of mankind and take them through into Freedom for Eternity. Will you help Me by governing yourselves? The greatest help you can give to Me is to keep your own feelings so harmonized, pour out such love and kindness that everything you touch, like magic becomes the Perfection you desire; because you cannot stand with Me and help the rest of mankind and not have that which I want you to have and that which I have the Power to give.

There is nothing superior to that Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ, but you cannot talk about It, Precious Ones, and feel irritation or battle in the feelings. That Love of which I speak must be in the solar plexus, in the Heart, in every Point of Light in your bodies and no unkind feeling, no matter what the provocation in the outer. Allow nothing to go forth from you except the Flame of the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ. That is the Master of a condition, not a battle of energy. Let Me have every feeling that has ever gone through you with a sense of battle.

There may be some resistance in the atmosphere, but the Master Presence of Cosmic Love knows no resistance; because It is an Action of the Fire Element and the Fire does not resist anything – It burns Its way through. That is why I want you to ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU ARE THE COSMIC FLAME OF THE MIGHTIEST LOVE OF THE COSMIC CHRIST AND IT GOES BEFORE YOU AND BURNS AWAY EVERYTHING THAT WOULD CAUSE IRRITATION OR RESISTANCE OR BATTLE! Love does not battle anything, and Love is the Supreme and Mightiest Activity of Life everywhere throughout Creation.

Now then, if you will open your arms, hands and Hearts wide to the Incoming Flame of the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ during the Seven Sacred Weeks you shall experience that which I want you to have; and It will lift you on the Wings of Light above problems, limitations and conditions; and that which disturbs you now, you will scarcely know it is in the Universe. You will simply be above it in that Kindness, Love, Happiness and Harmony that just does not care about the discord, except to pour love upon it to dissolve it.

So I say to you today: Close the door on all irritation, battle and resistance, no matter what is around you. Face the Flame of Love and Freedom which I have offered. Stand in the "I AM" Music of the Spheres and call forth the Sacred Fire, which is your guard over the Seven Sacred Weeks. I want the whole Student Body to be so clothed in this Great Cosmic Flame of Love of the Cosmic Christ that they will move forward giving the service that none of mankind has yet given and be wholly untouched by the discord of those who will not turn and serve the Light at this time.

To those Blessed Ones in the National Defense We are setting up a certain guard, because many of those Life Streams belong to the Light. They were not placed there because they wanted to. They did not do what they had to do sometimes, of their own free will; therefore, the Cosmic Law is making allowance for those who have been in the National Defense, but for the rest of the Student Body I say, guard yourselves as never before, for the Joy, the Freedom, the Power, the Manifestations that "I AM" waiting to bring into your daily use, if you will harmonize your own feelings and never again allow one wave to go forth from you that is not a Blessing of Love to Life — if you will do this, no matter what danger approaches, We can protect you through anything and if you do not do it We cannot protect you longer.

The Cosmic Law comes to the time where It says: "Thus far and no farther! Each Life Stream must stand on its own Light and reveal its strength or its human creation and see where it belongs in the future." When a Life Stream is tested for its Light it is really being tested for its Love. The amount of Love in each Life Stream is what determines its place in the cycle that is here and the conditions of transition and the other changes that are to come.

I say to you this hour, were the world changes to come suddenly upon mankind, only those who pour out that Cosmic Love will be insulated against the destructive activities of the Powers of Nature which must take their toll and cleanse the Earth from that which will not become the Purity of God except by the Fire Element.

So today let Me be your Armor of Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ. Pour it without reservation and be absolutely unconscious of anything but That Love, and the Heavens shall open to you, shall give you everything that is at Our Command; and you shall go forth and BE the custodians and render service to the rest of mankind that you alone can give. Not all the rest of mankind put together can render the service the "I AM" Students can render right now, because they do not have the Conscious Understanding. You know the Law! You have the Momentum gained through your Decrees! You have the Assistance given by the Mighty Divine Director of the removal of most of your human creation — the rest of it lies in the palm of your hand to either be the master of circumstances or again live under the whip of human discord.

From this moment the door may be sealed for Eternity for every one of you as you believe and accept That which I have said this morning and I have come and said It because of the Great Love of My Heart. PASS NO JUDGMENT UPON ANY HUMAN BEING. SEE THE HIGHER MENTAL BODY OF EACH HUMAN FORM

COME DOWN OVER THAT HUMAN FORM AS A SUN OF BLAZING, DAZZLING WHITE LIGHT AND TAKE THE DOMINION OF THE COSMIC CHRIST AND RULE AS GOD DOES IN THE VICTORY OF COSMIC LOVE.

Be determined to stand with unflinching Determination to hold the uninterrupted Harmony that is the Scepter of Power and the Release of everything from Our Octave into yours which is Victory and Freedom and the Mastery of your own "Mighty I AM Presence." Give It to all and rest within Its Great Cosmic Love; then BE a Sun of the Outpouring of that Love to everybody and everything you contact. No matter what destruction seems to touch those around you or the conditions of the outer world, as you hold insulated and connected with Our Octave by your Love and Harmony, will Our Protection always surround you, even when you do not know you are in danger.

The hour strikes when the Ascended Masters must come through at a certain time to render that Assistance which only They can give; and We want you to have the enjoyment of being a Part of Their Magnificence, Their Victory, Their Freedom and Assistance to your Nation and your fellow man. So live from today on in the enjoyment and activity of expanding the Cosmic Love of the Cosmic Christ and your pathway shall be blazing with Light, supplied with every good thing and you will not ever again feel the pressure of the shadows, because you will have been sealed in the Light which casts no shadow.
