BELOVED ONES of the Sacred Fire—for such you have a right to be called—your heritage as Sons of the Flame and Daughters of the Flame, the Unfed Flame from the Heart of the Central Sun, makes you the Legions of the Sacred Fire.

So I come to you from Heights of Cosmic Flame bearing the Authority and the Feeling of that Sacred Fire, in a Radiance which I wish to give that will enable you to comprehend more and more clearly the Inner Actions of that Mighty Sacred Fire, which is God's Authority throughout the entire Universe.

Oh, great, Beloved Ones, is the energy of the Sacred Fire! Joyous beyond description is Its enfolding Presence about you; and peaceful forever is Its Heart as you turn to It and offer It your all, and ask It to be the Presence of every good thing you can ever think of, desire, or use, so long as Eternity shall last.

Heavenly indeed is the Consciousness of the Sacred Fire! Within It is the highest Purity in the Universe, the mightiest Protection, the most beautiful Manifestations, and the greatest Opulence that Life can ever desire anywhere. And all that comes from within the Heart of the Sacred Fire—those desires bring to you Blessings for all Eternity. It is only when the desires of mankind turn to the outer and ask for something less than Perfection, that distress comes to those of mankind who have chosen to turn their backs upon the Sacred Fire and walk in the shadows of their own discordant feelings.

Since I have always been a Being of the Fire Element, then "I AM" the Authority of the Feeling that is within It; and it is that Fire Element or Sacred Fire that I wish to convey to you tonight in the Feeling that is Mine, when you have but to speak in the Authority of Cosmic Love and all Fire is instantly your obedient Co-worker.

Precious Ones, oh, believe Me! Enter in and enjoy the Dominion that Life has conferred upon you when you recognize and enter deep into the Heart of the Sacred Fire of the Universe! There is not a Quality of Perfection nor Infinite Power that you cannot draw into outer action and your use through the physical forms through which you now function, that you cannot have as you call for Its Mighty Release through you to fulfill the Divine Plan.

There is not a Power that is contained within Life that you cannot draw forth through your Command of the Sacred Fire. It is the Powerhouse of the Universe! It is the great Heart of God's Infinite Creation! It is the Heart of all Authority and the Heart of all Power, because It is from the Flame that the particles of Light-Substance come forth that form the Universal Light-Substance out of which manifestation is created.

Therefore, in becoming acquainted with what the Sacred Fire means, you become master of the physical flame, the physical fire element; but you cannot be master of that until all impurities are dissolved and consumed by the Sacred Fire first. That means your Violet Consuming Flame, the Blue Lightning of Cosmic Purity, and the Spiral Blue Flame. These are Inner Actions of the Sacred Fire that as you call Them forth and allow Them to be held in sustained action in and around all the substance of your minds and bodies and Life Streams, as that Final Release takes place and the last fragment of impurity is dissolved from the atomic structure and the atmosphere about you, will you begin to feel the great surge of that Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme; and when That becomes the only Presence acting in and around you, you will find the physical fire your obedient servant, and never would it have a destructive reaction upon your outer selves.

When you have become the release of that great Presence of the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love in and around your physical forms, you can walk upon the waters, pass through the air, dissolve accumulated substance around the atomic structure, hold all things in Divine Order and Divine Balance—and then, My Dear Ones, there is no such thing as an impurity coming near you. All substance that you contact automatically remains in its own Divine Place of service in the Universe. All substance that you contact automatically becomes Pure, Self-luminous, and Obedient instantly to your slightest Command.

It is for that very definite purpose and action of the Law and that very definite reason that every Ascended Master sooner or later reminds you of the great Power of Cosmic Love—that Divine Love which is within Life, and is the Focus of the Unfed Flame in every Heart and every Action of the Sacred Fire that you could ever desire to draw forth into outer action.

Every Ascended Master sooner or later, at intervals, will point your attention to the pouring forth of the Power of the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love and ask you to become centered in Its use. Why is that? Because then you may become such an individualized intensifying, expanding Sun of Its Action that It—being the Supreme Authority of Creation—the moment there is a Focus of Its Intensified Action, automatically sets up a magnetic pull and all substance surrounding you comes automatically to you, because it knows that when you have become a Sun of Cosmic Love, it is blessed by your enfolding qualities—your presence. Whenever it comes near you, it is raised into a more rapid vibratory action because you are the Sacred Fire that gives your love to it, and that enables it to raise into an Expanding Power of releasing the greater Perfection of Life.

Remember, it matters not whether it be a flower, a mineral within the Earth, the birds of the air, or the enfolding Flame in your own Hearts; it matters not what Focus of Life is drawn forth to expand the Beauty of Its own Divine Design—it cannot do it unless it be clothed in the Sacred Fire of that Cosmic Love Supreme. Everything that grows in creation that fulfills the Divine Plan must be clothed in that Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love, if the Divine Pattern within the nucleus of Light is to come into outer action and produce manifestation in the outer world.

It is only when mankind refuse to pour out that great Cosmic Kindness and Harmony that allows the Divine Design to express and expand, that suffering comes within the Temple of Life. And what is suffering? It is the interference with the Streams or Energy that are automatically flowing forth and given off from the Unfed Flame in your Hearts. The Unfed Flame in your Heart is so created and so focused within you that Its Divine Service and Purpose in the Universe is to pour forth from Itself the Light-Substance that is the Radiation of the Flame—the same as the Light in this room is the radiation from the filament in your electric light bulb. The radiation of warmth in a room is the substance that is given off from whatever is your heating apparatus.

Therefore, since the Flame's Radiation is the creation of substance in the atmosphere about you, since you cannot change the Action of the Sacred Fire in your Heart, you cannot possibly change Its Divine Purpose and order of manifestation. That Power is within the Flame, and you cannot take It out; but if you interfere with Its Great Currents of Substance passing off to fill the Universe around you with Its Blessings and Perfection and you won't let That flow, then when you interfere with That, there comes distress because the currents that should flow forth are driven back against your own emotional bodies.

That is why, Precious Ones, any interference with the Harmony of Life is a sin against Love. Imagine, if you can, how great is the Being of Life, the existence of Life, that wherever It draws forth an Individual Focus of Its Flame, that Flame's whole Action is to pour forth the Substance of Light that is the magnificent Harmony and Beauty and Power to create Beauty, and Power to create and design the things that fill the Universe.

Life is very wonderful since It is always giving of Itself to produce Beauty and Happiness and magnificent Joy throughout Creation; and only when the intellectual consciousness and the feelings of the outer self are fiercely determined to interfere with the flow of that Harmony and Blessing do they dare to oppose the Authority of Cosmic Love that is within the Sacred Fire, the Unfed Flame in each one's Heart.

Oh, Precious Ones, no wonder mankind are in such distress! They will not let that Cosmic Fire of Cosmic Love within them pour Its Blessings of Perfection to the atmosphere about them, and hence they live in such distress that Life never intended to come forth.

Now it is My great Joy, My Privilege tonight to turn your attention to the Supreme Scepter of Power that Life has bestowed upon you, and let you experiment for yourselves and see the difference in an entire day lived in the conscious recognition that you are that Majestic Presence and Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme, blessing everything you contact that day with the Perfection of the Divine Plan fulfilled that Life intends. You consciously keep charging That forth many times in a day, and then compare the experiences and your feelings of that day with these days in which you battle each other and you battle things because they are not what you think they ought to be.

Who is the thinker within you, Beloved Ones? Is it not the Enfolding Flame of the Higher Mental Body thinking through the Flame in your Heart? Well, if people won't think of the Perfection that is in the Higher Mental Body and the "Presence" and the Ascended Host, if they won't think about That, well then, they do think about the distress of the outer world.

This night I want you to feel My willingness—oh, Beloved Ones, I am so willing, I am so glad to walk through a room or to pass the Love of My Heart, which is a Living Flame, through every one of your emotional bodies; and I can release them from distress, oh, in just an instant, if you will only let Me. You think, Precious Ones, that the distress of your bodies is sometimes because something is out of place or there is a pressure here or a pressure there. What do you think makes that pressure? A creation on your emotional bodies that hangs as a weight upon that portion of the body where the distress seems to be. If your emotional bodies could be cut free like that (motion of hand) from that substance of those accumulations lifted in One Mighty Stroke, everything in your bodies would straighten out and come into alignment naturally and perfectly. They are only pulled out because the accumulation of substance on the emotional body at certain points has accumulated until it interferes with the Light that flows through the nerves.

If that were not true, how do you think the Mighty Saint Germain could have straightened out the Blessed Zara Livingston's body? He took away the substance that had been drawn into her emotional body; and when He took that away, the body straightened out, did it not? Well that is because the feeling world was released from the accumulated substance that had become so frightfully discordant.

Blessed Ones, you have never yet realized the Scepter of Power which lies within each of your hands, ready for use the moment you are fiercely determined to pour that Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love upon everything that does not please you. When your love is great enough, there can be no displeasure. How do you think that I could release the Power of the Sacred Fire as I pass through a room, and take out in an instant all that was there a moment before—and not only out of the room, but I have taken it out of the Universe, out of existence? By what, do you think? What do you think enables Me to have so great a Power? Just the Flame of Love of My own Life. When I do that, I walk through the atmosphere and My Love meets the Love in every Point of Light within it, and there is nothing left between—so where has the distress gone? Where has the impurity gone? I have given My Life and My Love to every Point of Light, and as It expands to meet those Points of Light, there is nothing that can stand before My Flame and all must become Its Perfection!

The Fire Element is Supreme over the other three Elements of Creation. The Fire Element is the Authority of what rate of vibration shall come forth and what shall be sustained and what shall not. That is your Authority of Life, Beloved Ones—the Sacred Fire in your own Hearts. The day, My Loved Ones, that you make your decision to never again speak a word into the atmosphere of Earth that is not the Blessing of Love to all Life, the day you are master over that, will My Love be Master in your emotional bodies. The cause of your distress is just the old habit of wanting to be unkind to some other part of Me.

“I AM” One, remember, with the Unfed Flame in every Heart of every human being on the Earth! “I AM” One with the Sevenfold Flame in the forehead of every human being on Earth! “I AM” One with the Flame in the throat, because “I AM” Prince of the Fiery Element. And how do you think I became Immortal? I was not so always. I was not an originally created Unfed Flame from the Great Central Sun. I was a Being of the Fire Element who served One who loved Me—an Ascended Master whose Love was very, very great; and My Joy was so great in My Service to Him that He offered Me Immortality and I accepted that. Then when I became the individual or Individualized Unfed Flame from the Great Central Sun, which Immortality is, I loved My way through the rest of My experiences until I became the Being I am today. I have done that all through the constant use of the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love to all substance wherever I have passed by.

Beloved Ones, from this night on, I can give you such release, oh, as easy as breathing can I give you your release tonight, if never again will you give way to that impulse to say something to hurt someone—to be cross or irritable. Oh, if you could put that kindly sound in your voices of the Blessing of My Love to Life, you would never again know a distress in your bodies. Try it out. Let Me take your hand tonight! I want you to be free! There is no law in the Universe which compels you to be in pain and distress when We stand ready to give you ease and happiness and peace; but don't ever interfere, ever again, with the Love and the Blessing of Perfection which the Unfed Flame in your Heart wants to give to the Life in the Universe around you.

Please do not interfere again, ever, with the Blessing It wants to pour forth; because if you will let It, your distress is over tonight. If you will give It uninterrupted freedom through yourselves, oh, My Dear Ones, oh, the Powers of Life are so Beautiful, so Magnificent, oh, so Mighty! That Unfed Flame in you is Master! There is a tiny spark of Its Presence in every cell of your bodies, otherwise the Life processes would not go on in your flesh. So long as the Life processes continue, then that Spark of Flame is there. It will hear you and It responds to Love the quickest of any quality, because It is the Gift of Love. Oh, Precious Ones, could you see what you do to yourselves, could you see what you do to the Beings of the Air Element—not to mention those of the Earth and the Water in your own bodies—but, oh, if you could see what you do to the Beings in the Element of Air when you say sharp unkind words into the ethers about you! Could you see those beautiful Beings cringe and wither and die, you would never do it again—never, no matter what anybody did to you. You would never hurt those beautiful Beings like that again.

Oh, it is no wonder mankind are in the throes of war and destruction and frightful filth when they have done those things so long to Beings that are created pure and beautiful and happy. Oh, you cannot mar the Universe around you and not yourselves be marred; and every sharp word, every unkind sound is a mar upon the beauty of the Universe. We come to consume that tonight; and We have consumed so much, so much, again and again and again, and We stand ready to do it. We are so glad to do it if you will give Us the opportunity. It has been a long time since I have had the chance to come into the room and take away from around each of you that which has been your distress of the weeks or months past.

Oh, the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings stand ready, waiting to just surge forth everything that will help you to be free as soon as you make your final decision. Notice, I said “final decision,” because many of you have decided intellectually again and again that you won’t do the things that cause distress; and then something else rushes in and the old habits act again. But I say, when you make your final decision to forbid that to ever act through you again, then, My Dear Ones, We can take away the remainder of anything—whether it be habit or accumulation of the past, matters not.

We are not concerned about what your creations are. Truly, some of them are not beautiful to look upon; but We know that when We consume them again, those Points of Light are given Freedom to go forth and produce Beauty and Perfection in the Universe; and We are very happy to help them to be free, to help you to be free and to re-establish the Beauty and the Glory of those Golden Ages of long ago. This time the Golden Age will reveal a Beauty far transcending anything that has ever been upon the Earth before in any age, and this time it will be final.

So, Precious Ones, with your assistance tonight—I am just offering—but with your assistance, may We have your final decision tonight? (Applause—audience rising)

Precious Hearts, I thank you for that! My Love has not been in vain tonight when your Hearts respond to Me like that. While you are standing, will you feel the shape of My Flame and My Love—I shall explain this action tonight so that you hold clearly the picture within your minds. Where the Flame stands and the Wings go forth enfolding the Flame, those Wings stand as Protection. My Flame comes like that (motion of hand—from the floor up) and the Wings stand up, drawing you like a magnet up and away from the substance of the shadows. I want you to feel the difference tonight—and I trust we will be able to have the illustration of this in the Magazine—as if a Being stood with Its Wings of Flame pointing upward, not just out. Those which stand out are for Protection to enfold you in Their Love; but My Wings of Flame point up and draw you up out of the discordant, surrounding substance. Then as soon as that drawing Power acts upon the Points of Light within your bodies, the Flash or Flame passes under and your creation is gone.

This is a powerful pull upon your attention, as well as upon the Substance of Light within you; and I trust you will feel great release, oh, such a release, and I want you to have that happiness. You have given Me your Word of Honor tonight. I shall make My part of that agreement very tangible to you all in a Service which I trust you will never forget, as you feel that lightness and release from the substance which I would love to withdraw and purify and free once again. Thank you, Beloved Hearts of the Light! Thank you, Beloved Hearts of the Sacred Fire! Won't you be seated, please.

Just be happy tonight. I have the Power to release your bodies from all distress; but only enough love can maintain the harmony within you that allows the completion of the work to take place—the activity of re-establishing the balance and the ease and the Perfection that Life loves to give you. Life has loved you so long! Life still loves you; and now if you will just let It pour Its Blessings to the Universe around you, your joy will know no bounds, and a Freedom you have never felt before will bring a lightness in your bodies that will make you enjoy Life as Life has so long intended.

Remember, We do not condemn you. There is no feeling of anything to you but just Our Love. Do not be distressed about what has gone before. Just be happy from tonight, and be the Great Magnet of the Sacred Fire that raises you out of distress and then gives through you Its Blessings to the Universe.

I trust that We can see Our Way clear to make an experiment for all of you, when the right conditions are provided in a building where none come except those who render the service and those to whom it is given—a building established or built solely for the purpose of intensifying the Sacred Fire of this Cosmic Love Supreme, just the intensification of that Quality which contains within It all of everything. We may provide that which can be used as an experiment for this in a small way, until We can prove to each of you in your own bodies as you enter that Focus and let you feel the Power within That and the Illumination that comes—then will you feel by actual experience what an intensified Focus of that Flame can do for those who will establish It and guard It and help It to expand through your Calls.

Beloved Ones, believe Me tonight; just cultivate that Mighty Power within yourselves—which is not attachment to people nor things—but just the great enjoyment of the Sacred Fire of the Cosmic Love of the Universe pouring through you Its Happiness and Purity and Beauty and Perfection to all around you. Oh, I could show you the Beauties of the Universe in a Focus like that which would bring such Illumination to your minds that everybody you contacted would love you for that Light.

Remember tonight, you are honor-bound to pour out that Cosmic Flame that purifies all that you contact. And I say to the Student Body in the use of this new Power—not that It is new in the Universe—but in Its newest concentration and action to you, or through you, I say to you all as you feel the greater release of that Power and Its Magnificent Blessings and Gifts, as It makes others come to you whom you can help, if It draws forth great adoration from them, be very careful you don't hold it in the personal self. This is a Sacred Power you are dealing with. It has come from above and those whom the Light attracts are to be purified, protected, and raised above. You are not to take that to yourselves personally after this Assistance has been given tonight.

I issue the warning because many Students have come to this point in the past and, not being strong enough to pass all up to the "Presence," fall because of the temptation to hold again to themselves the Love that belongs to God. So I warn you! You have given Me your Word of Honor that you are through with all unkindness. Therefore, We are ready to release the greater Power, but let not temptation cause you to hold or enjoy that admiration which others who as yet do not quite understand the Law might pour to you.

Remember, Beloved Ones, every added Power is a greater Trust from that which is greater than you. You would not be worthy of your Freedom; you would not be worthy of your Ascension; you would not be worthy of Our Love and Protection if you were not strong enough to turn everyone's love and gratitude to you up to the "Presence" and the Ascended Host and not hold it in your own feeling world.

I offer the Assistance tonight and the warning with it, because there cannot come Protection to you unless you pass right up to the "Presence" and the Ascended Host the gratitude and love from others whom you set free. This is the great test of the Student on the path, because if there is the slightest feeling within of wanting to hold that to the personal self and enjoy it, then the door must close and again the shadows fall upon you.

I must give the warning because the Power stands waiting to surge and release to bless you, if you are ready to be strong and firm in your determination to give all to the "Presence" and the Ascended Host. Then there is no Power you may not have. There is no greater Joy or Victory of Light in the Universe than to draw forth all the Powers of the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme and pour It to free all Life from distress; but when that Life, freed, releases its love and gratitude to you, it must be given to the "Presence" and the Ascended Ones who gave you the Love to set you free.

So tonight, if you have made your last decision, and I accept that you have, to never again pour out unkindness to Life, then We will proceed to move forward hand in hand, and I shall show you what the Mantle of My Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love can do for you and those you love wherever you move. Center yourselves within that Power of your own "Beloved I AM Presence" and Our Octave of Light, and let us go forth and consume distress and turn all the love of mankind again to the "Presence" and the Ascended Masters' Octave, that the Ascension may be given and the Great Victory of Life come forth to free all and raise the Earth into the great Glory and its position as a Sun in space.

Hold not to yourselves the love and the gratitude of those you serve and set free. Please remember My Words tonight! Not even in your own secret feelings have any sense of attachment. Give the great Perfection of Life which you have the Power to release, and Life from above will give you greater and greater Joy; but remember the Love of every Life Stream and Its Gratitude belongs to the "Presence," for It alone is the Doer. If you will give acknowledgment to that, miracles, marvels, wonders, glories, and victories supreme are yours without cessation; and your pathway shall be free of obstruction and your problems be replaced by the great accomplishment and blessings of the fulfilled Divine Plan.

Remember, Beloved Ones, challenge not the Powers of the Sacred Fire by holding to the self any longer that which belongs to the "Presence" and the Ascended Ones. Just accept tonight the fullness of this Sacred Fire. Have the release that you can so easily bring forth, and remember that everything belongs to that "Presence" and the Ascended Host. Everything with which you would give release to others is the "Presence" pouring through you; therefore, when the love and gratitude comes, raise it to the "Presence" and compel the outer to abide within the Glory of the Flame.

It is the greatest privilege indeed to feel the Power of that Sacred Fire, like a magnet, enfolding an individual and lifting that Life Stream out of connection with the discordantly qualified substance, and like a butterfly or bird that you hold to the sunlight, see it go forth on its appointed pathway of existence to fulfill the Great Plan and the Joy of all Creation by its enfolding Radiance. That is your Open Door tonight! That is the Power and opportunity that stands before each of you—cast it not aside! Stand facing that Light! Be Its Cosmic Flame of Sacred Fire from the Ascended Masters' Octave! Flood It forth to bless everybody and everything! Sing with the Angelic Host! See into the Octave of Light! Pour forth your blessings without limit! Bring forth your Powers of Precipitation and Etherealization, your Powers of Healing to bless and to set free from the torture that has been imposed upon Life, and you shall know a joy that the world can never offer.

I stand ready always to answer your slightest Call; and as you hold your attention to that "Presence" and give the assistance to Life, there stands awaiting you Blessings and Powers beyond words to describe. That can be yours for use while yet unascended, and you reveal to the rest of mankind the Perfection in God's Universe that floods everywhere to those who understand the Law and give the obedience that sets all free.

Oh, Beloved Ones, you know not yet the Joy of the Power of that Sacred Fire to heal bodies, illumine minds, lift the distress, and point that Life to the happiness of attainment. There is no joy on Earth so great as the freeing of Life Streams from the distress of the past. Tonight I stand awaiting your slightest Call, and I am sure you will not find Me wanting.

May you feel My Guarding Presence! May the Angelic Host enfold Their Flames of Love about you for your Protection, and may you feel that Great Magnetic Pull of the Fire Element which I command to lift you out of everything that has ever been a limitation or a distress of any kind. The Fire Element is Supreme, My Loved Ones! Feel It tonight! Accept the Garment of My Love and go forth, and this time hold the Purity and the Perfection of Life's Divine Plan fulfilled through yourselves—a Blazing Magnet to the rest of mankind. Show them that for which they long, and be the proof of the Fulfillment of the Law that annihilates for Eternity the fear, the doubt, and the ignorance that has held them slaves to destructive forces.

Help Me tonight, and every Being of the Fire Element will come to your Assistance to accomplish the Victory. Fear not to give obedience to the Law as I have explained It, and wear My Mantle of the Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme, from which every destructive force on the Planet recedes when that Flame approaches. Remember, Beloved Ones, certain destructive forces will not bow except before the Flame. You are Master over those conditions when you use that Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme from your "Presence," from Us and the Cosmic Beings who are Its Authority throughout all Creation.

You are the Beloved Family of the Sacred Fire! You are the Beloved Legions of Mighty Saint Germain's Violet Consuming Flame. No greater Honor could come to mankind at this time, and I stand ready to assist you, to assist Him, to assist all Life everywhere to be free from all that is not the Glory of the Ascended Host forever.

So, in the Love that it is My Privilege to bestow, remember I stand and want to give you everything that you can possibly use to go forth and be the Victory of Happiness and Perfection to all. I thank you for this night! I have longed to come before, but other things were necessary before this could be given. I trust that after tonight My Visits will not be so far apart. I shall watch and wait and love you until I come again. (Applause—audience rising)

Thank you, Precious Ones. Thank you with all My Heart, and I stand ready to answer your slightest Call. Thank you. Won't you be seated.

When your attention comes to Me, My Flame of Love shall come back to you; and remember, It makes Its own Pathway and clears away everything that is of obstruction. So with My Love and Gratitude to you all, I shall do everything possible to guard and to help to raise you, until those Transcendent Powers that are within Life are released through you all and you go forth and lift your fellowman out of all that has ever been of human creation. May we lift mankind, may we lift the Earth and all Life upon it once again into the Golden Sunshine of that "Majestic Presence" and Sacred Fire of Cosmic Love Supreme. It is the Authority of the Incoming Golden Age, and you are privileged to be the Light Bearers and the Advance Guard that ushers in the New Age.

Thank you for all Eternity for this night. I bless you forever.
