The biggest problem you'll ever have in this world or any other is just your own energy, your own vibration inside of you. That's the only problem for any Life Stream. The minute this is purified and controlled, automatically the Prevention Flame and the enfolding Presence of the Higher Mental Body enfolds the physical form and repels everything unlike Itself, or consumes it and prevents it.

When people allow themselves to battle and hate somebody else that is trying to hold to the Light at this time, there isn't anything on earth that will chain them to their own destruction any more than themselves. People chain themselves to their own destruction by hatred of something or somebody outside, which they blame for their own destructive creations that are inside of themselves.

Now you can take two people and put them through the same experience of the outer world. One person will go through it and let it roll off—and doesn't hardly let it even register. And the other person will kick like a Texas steer and fight about everybody and everything connected with it. Well, the poor old condition didn't produce it in the individual. The individual produced it in himself or herself by his reaction, by his thought and feeling about it. Everybody crucifies himself by his own energy, his own vibration, because he or she will not obey this Law. You ask people to let go of their dirty habits and they will crucify their best friends.

I tell you, every hour I breathe I'm a billion times more grateful to my "Beloved Mighty I AM Presence" and Daddy dear and Saint Germain for this Truth of the Law.
