The Mothers Of The World

Lord Maha Chohan

“I AM” Authority over every Life Stream that comes into embodiment on this Earth. “I AM” Authority over the Powers of Nature and Forces of the Elements, and that includes the mountain ranges of the world. “I AM” Authority for the Release of this Great Cosmic Electronic Force and those Activities of the Sacred Fire of Our Love that always produce Perfection. Now I am going to say something that is very important to all who embody here. I am also the Guardian of the mothers of the world. I am interested in the younger generation. I am interested in their Purification and Protection! I am interested in keeping them out of the clutches of the beasts of the shadows, out of communism, and out of the clutches of the sinister force back of it. . . .

You can have all the Light in the Universe that you want; and Light—the Light from the Love of your “Mighty I AM Presence,” Its own Heart’s Flame can never give you anything but Happiness. Come with Me and dwell within It and help Me to guard this younger generation and the mothers of the world, and I will show you Legions of the Sacred Fire whose Glory and Power of Perfection fill the Universe with the Magnificent Blessings of God. And I will make that visible to you if you care to come My Way. (applause)
